

challenging. In the Tutorial Center, tutors are given a small raise each semester. To encourage retention of our best tutors, the MRC would like the budget to give its tutors small raises.

Over the last year, the department has implemented multiple measures in its math placement test to better place students in their course w