
Education Code Section 72400

The organizational structure of the District shall reflect a multi-college system of cooperating colleges, each independently accredited, and designed to fulfill the District's mission

Mission College, West Valley College, and the District Office shall be organized in the most efficient and effective manner to provide comprehensive educational services for the citizens of the District

Authority flows from the Board of Trustees of the District